Will it be anything like Jordan's extravagant wedding to Peter Andre?

Jodie: My wedding won't be anything like Jordan's! I'm not going to slag her off, but my wedding will be the best wedding anyone will have seen. I don't want to look like a comedy pink bishop. The traditional wedding will be beautiful and classic - there won't be any tacky pink Barbie doll outfits.

What will the second wedding be like?

Jodie: We want a mental fetish wedding in a luncheon because we've got a history of all things fetish. All of the guests will have to dress in fetish gear, including us. I'll wear a fetish dress in black and red - something short, PVC and outrageous. Maybe a corset with my boobs pushed up.

What will the bridesmaids wear?

Jodie: I want some of my best mates as bridesmaids, as well as a couple of celebrity bridesmaids for comedy value. They'll all be dressed in red and black stockings and suspenders with top hats. My dream would be to have drag queens and Nadia from Big Brother alongside Vanessa Feltz - and maybe even Kenzie in drag. Or he could be an usher in leather pants and a dog collar!

And what's the third wedding?

Jodie: We want to go abroad and have a blessing on a beach. We'd like a month abroad with all our friends and family somewhere like Barbados. I'll wear a bikini on the beach - or maybe just three white belts and a tiara.

Isn't it a bit soon to be getting married?

Jodie: I don't think so. The fun about life is being spontaneous and doing what you feel like doing at the time. I've always been the sort of person who takes risks, but he's the best boyfriend I've ever had.
